Introduction

The effective date of this Equal Opportunity Plan is March 10, 2021 and its duration is through March 9, 2024.

The Dalton Police Department will not discriminate against any applicant for employment because of race, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, gender, gender identity / expression, sexual orientation, medical condition, or veteran status in regard to any position for which the applicant for employment is qualified.

The Dalton Police Department will recruit, hire, and promote qualified individuals without regard to race, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, gender, gender identity / expression, sexual orientation, medical condition, or veteran status.

The Dalton Police Department will ensure promotion decisions are in accordance with the principles of Equal Employment Opportunity by imposing only valid requirements for promotional opportunities.

The Dalton Police Department will ensure that all personnel actions, such as compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs, returns from layoffs, department-sponsored training, education, tuition assistance, and social and recreational programs will be administered without discrimination against an employee on account of race, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, gender, gender identity / expression, sexual orientation, medical condition, or veteran status.

The Dalton Police Department has upheld a policy of non-discrimination in the past and will continue this policy. The Dalton Police Department has utilized community leaders, area schools, the Citizens' Police Academy, and other programs in an attempt to acquire a larger pool of minority applicants, including female applicants in general.

Goals

Because Hispanics, African Americans, and females are under-represented in each level of this organization, it is the goal of this department to increase this representation by continuing to seek out applicants in these groups through use of social media, traditional media, relationships with the community's Hispanic and African American civic and business leaders, and partnerships with area schools and colleges. Because females as a group are under-represented in this agency, efforts will also be made to target their recruitment through use of social and traditional media, as well as through local leaders and area schools and colleges. This is an ongoing process, which will be accomplished at least annually.

Strategies

Historically, females and minorities have not applied in large numbers for positions within this department. It is hoped that by continuing to target these applicants through all forms of media and through talking with area leaders, that more females and minorities will wish to apply.

In addition, some officers in this agency work with a group of young people in a Boy Scouts “Explorer” program. These young people (both male and female) have a special interest in law enforcement and assist this department with various details, such as traffic control and parades. As these Explorers become old enough to go into the workforce, it is hoped they will wish to apply with this department. In fact, two former Explorers were hired as police officers by this department.

The Support Services Division Commander is responsible for the agency’s recruiting function. Personnel assigned to the function will attend job fairs in the region to recruit applicants for the department. The recruiting function will work with the School Resource Officers to speak to selected high school classes about a future in law enforcement. The recruiting function personnel will target minority groups in schools to try to generate an interest in law enforcement.

A Citizens’ Police Academy has been offered at the Dalton Police Department for over twenty years. Interested citizens are afforded opportunities to interact with the different divisions of the department over a 10-week period. This type of interaction between the community and the Dalton Police Department should serve to reach more prospective applicants, both inside and outside the community.

The agency has a Paid Internship Program and an Enhanced Internship Program. The goal of the Dalton Police Department Paid Internship and Enhanced Internship Programs is the recruiting, selecting, training, and retaining of individuals exhibiting the highest possible qualifications to perform the tasks and functions of the agency. We have had difficulties recruiting qualified female and minority applicants and hope that by providing opportunities for internships, we will increase our exposure to a greater number of well-qualified applicants.

Filing an EEOC Complaint

If you believe you have been discriminated against by an employer, labor union, or employment agency when applying for a job or while on the job because of your race, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, gender, gender identity / expression, sexual orientation, medical condition, or veteran status or believe that you have been discriminated against because of opposing a prohibited practice or participating in an equal employment opportunity matter, you may file a charge of discrimination with the US Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). All laws enforced by EEOC, (Title VII of the Civil Rights Act [Title VII]), Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), except the Equal Pay Act (EPA), require filing a charge with EEOC before a private lawsuit may be filed in court.

To protect your legal rights, it is always best to contact the EEOC promptly when discrimination is suspected. There are strict time limits within which charges must be filed. Please review the information below:

A charge must be filed with EEOC within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation in order to protect the charging party's rights.

This 180-day filing deadline may be extended to 300 days if the charge also is covered by a state or local anti-discrimination law.

These time limits do not apply to claims under the Equal Pay Act, because under that Act persons do not have to first file a charge with EEOC in order to have the right to go to court. However, since many EPA claims also raise Title VII sex discrimination issues, it may be advisable to file charges under both laws within the time limits indicated.
