January 03, 2023

Prepared by: Captain J. Johnson

Dalton Police Department 2022 Complaints and Inquiries

It is the policy of this department to investigate all complaints of misconduct against the agency or its employees and to equitably determine whether the allegations are valid or invalid and to take appropriate action. In addition, the department conducts inquiries into incidents where citizens disagree with the outcome or dispute matters of material fact.

The Professional Standards Unit shall have primary supervisory responsibilities for the review and internal investigation of all formal complaints against the agency or its employees whether initiated by a citizen or from within the department. While investigating a complaint, the Professional Standards Unit is delegated the authority by the Chief of Police for the purposes of directing the investigation and shall report directly to him / her. The image perceived by the public of the Dalton Police Department is in many ways determined by the quality of the professional standards function in responding to allegations of misconduct by the agency or agency employees.
